2nd Place: Kym Man ($1,000) "Investigating the influence of contextual relevance on consumer product evaluations"

3rd Place: Abigail Sommer ($500) "Chemical and Physical Stability of Fish Oil Fortified Plant Milk Analogs"

Make a Difference

Have you wanted to make a difference in the future of the food industry? Now is your chance, we are actively recruiting volunteers for the 2022-2023 OVIFT Board. There are many opportunities throughout the year to volunteer and it does not have to be a big time commitment - join a committee that interests you or volunteer to help at one of our events- whatever works best for your interests and availability. Please reach out to ohiovalleysection.ift@gmail.com for details!

It was great to see you again!

In May, we hosted Social Hours in Columbus and Cincinnati. It was so great to see everyone in person again and we look forward to seeing you at more events coming soon. Be on the lookout for new events scheduled for the year in the coming months and if you have an idea for an event, we'd love to hear it: ohiovalleysection.ift@gmail.com.
